NOTICE--Celebration Committees

All committees for Coronation Day Celebration are requested to meet tonight at the Alexandra sample rooms at 8 o'clock sharp.

AROUND THE TOWN

Mrs. F. N. Ballard, was a visitor at Calgary on Friday last.

Miss Edna Hallman, returned from Calgary Hospital last week.

David Mackie, of Montrose, Scotland, arrived here on Saturday and will act as a clerk in the Traders Bank.

Miss Flossie Colvin, nurse at the Calgary Hospital, is spending a short vacation with her brother and sisters in Didsbury.

C. P. R. surveyors were at work again on the proposed pipe line from the Dog Pound Creek to Didsbury last week.

See the full programme of events for the Didsbury Coronation celebration on June 22nd on last page.

Mrs. and Dr. Reid returned from Banff on Saturday. The Doctor's many friends will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his recent indisposition.

Mr. M. Barrett, of Ferndale, Wash., owner of Alexandra Hotel block, is in town. Mr. Barrett, is here to make arrangements for extensive alterations to the hotel building.

The two-mile Marathon race which will be run off on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock promises to be a hummer as several of our local sprinters are practising every night. The prizes for this event are $10, $5 and $2.

Say, if you hear of any visitors coming to town or of anything of interest to the public telephone No. 12 and help us out and you will do us a kindness, as we are short of help in the mechanical department and the editor has had to take off his coat and get to work, consequently the news columns are suffering.

Rev. W. G. W. Fortune, General Secretary of the Temperance and Moral Reform League, will conduct a union service in the Evangelical church on Sunday evening next at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited to attend this service. No evening services in Mennonite, Baptist, or Presbyterian churches.

The Sunnyslope Modern Woodmen of America will hold a big log rolling celebration on July 1st. It is pretty well known that when these gentlemen at Sunnyslope get up these affairs they are generally a great success, and this year's celebration promises to eclipse anything they have had yet. Go to Sunnyslope on July 1st.

The Didsbury Baseball team journeyed to Bowden last week but the ill luck that has been following the team from the beginning of the season stayed with them and they were beaten. The same thing happened on Saturday when Westcott sent in a team. We live in hopes that we can report something better for the game with Crossfield on Friday evening.

The parade committee for the celebration on June 22nd have been hard at work and so far have met great success. The merchants are taking up the matter with much enthusiasm and one gentleman stated that there would be no less than six autos of a certain manufacture in the parade. The School Board are also assisting in making the parade a success by having the school children take part, which will be very appropriate.

Seeding is Done

Painting, fencing and repairing will now be the order of the day since seeding is done, and we would like to draw your attention to the exceptional values we are offering in

Paints, Barbed and Spring Coil Wire, Hog Fence, and last, but not least, Cyclone Lawn Fence,

She—Hm. He told me that he saved you from a much worse place than that—MAP.

It Has Many Qualities.—The man who possessed it at first thought it was Oil of Armament against many ills. It will cure all skin diseases, relieve sore throats; it will reduce the swelling from a sprain, cure the most persistent soreness of the feet, stop all intestinal contusions. It is a medicine chest in itself, and can be got for a quarter of a dollar.

If the bottom cellar step be painted white it will save many a fall in the dark.

A MOTHER'S PRAISE OF BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mr. Allen Mason, Carlton, N.B., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets ever since I had a baby, and they are just as good fifteen years later. I have always found them entirely satisfactory for all the ailments of little ones and feel that I cannot praise them too highly. I am sure Mason's praise is just that of them—sands of mothers who consider Baby's Own Tablets the only safe and sure remedy to keep in the house for their little ones." FARMER'S WIFE TELLS HER STORY

FOUND A CURE FOR ALL HER ILLS IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

She was tired, worn-out and nervous and suffered from Rheumatism, but two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured her.

Hawthorne, Ont. (Special)—Mrs. T. G. Alexander, wife of a well-known farmer living near here, adds her testimony to that of the thousands of others who have told us their own experience that Dodd's Kidney Pills cure Kidney Disease.

"I suffered for twelve years," Mrs. Alexander says. "My back ached, my chest was broken and my breathing was difficult. I was nervous and tired and I was troubled with heart flutterings. Rheumatism developed and added to my suffering."

"I was in a very rundown, worn-out condition when I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, but I am gradually getting stronger and my relief almost from the first. Two boxes cured me completely."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the Kidney Disease, cure the heart trouble, all internal organs, and stand out of the crowd. That means pure blood all over the body and the banishment of that tired, heavy feeling and those pains and aches that impure blood brings.

Tough All Around

The tough customer was struggling with a tough steak in a tough restaurant.

"Say, you!" he finally roared at the waiter. "I'm used to eating rhinoceros hide. Fetch me something a little more nourishing in a hurry."

"Aw, fade away, little one," said the juggling waiter wistfully.

"What do you think this joint is—a diet kitchen?"—National Monthly.

True Glass Cure—The Cure—The vegetable compound of which the Vegetable Pills are composed, mainly consists of the bark of the sassafras root and intestines of deer, moose and bear, and restores the deranged organs to health. It is a powerful and safe remedy for Indigestion available today. A large number of physicians believe in this product and do more to convince the public of its value than anything else.

TRY IT—It is the only safe and reliable Remedy for Indigestion.

Those Useless Questions

"How did you get that bruised face?"

"It was caused by the hot track last night."

"Accidentally?"

"No, I think it attacked me purposely."

"So're your Shakespeare club is a great success?"

"Yes." We have accumulated enough money for non-contests, to take us all to a musical comedy.—Washington Herald.

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, who might have been saved, if proper remedies had been used. The only safe and reliable delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kelly's Liniment will be the time lost in sending the money to pay for the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly, strongly and safely, and that it quickly relieves the pain and disease.

Vera's meditations were cut short by the appearance of the man himself. Fenwick had come dressed in some blue material, just like an engineer on board ship. His hands were grimy, too. He had been indulging in some mechanical work. He needed nothing but the girl.

"So you've come at last," he said, "and I dare say you wonder why I sent for you." Then he turned to the back yonder, behind the drawing-room, that I have turned into a study. "Go in there and wait for me. I'll come as soon as I have washed my hands. I have something serious to say to you."

With a sinking at her heart Vera pressed into her hands that Fenwick had pointed out to her. At any other time she would have admired the old furniture and the elegant retainers simplicity of it; all now struck her as ugly and tasteless. She stood warming her hands at the fire till Fenwick came in and carefully closed the door after him.

"Now, then, let's get down to business," he said. "I dare say you wonder why I sent for you instead of leaving you in London for the present. Up to now you have been very safe, you perfectly safe indeed. I thought you were sufficiently grateful to me for all my kindness to you. I find I am not."

Vera looked up with challenge in her eyes. She knew that she had something to face now, and she meant to see it through without shrinking. The white feather was braced up and ready now that the moment for action had come.

"Have you ever really been kind to me? I think you have been kind to me for my own sake, and out of pure good nature? I very much doubt it."

"That's very gratifying," Fenwick sneered. "I think you had better understand one another."

"I would give a great deal to understand the girl you had," he said. "But we were writing letters here like this, and I am very tired. You sent for me at this extraordinary hour and I came. I have every right to know why you asked me to come here."

"Sit down," Fenwick growled. "I sent for you because I did not trust myself to speak to you because I have betrayed your秘密。 You are doing something that you told me you would not do."

"And what is that?" Vera asked.

"It's your secret," he said. "Let us go back a bit, back three years and a half ago. Your father was alive in those days, it was just before he died."

"I remember perfectly," Vera said. "I am not likely to forget the time. Pray continue."

"Then you are coming to me. Your father is no longer mysterious, but there was not the shadow of a doubt that he was murdered. No body knows how he was murdered, but a number of people who witnessed the scenes can guess why."

The thing was hushed up, possibly because the tragedy took place in so remote a corner of the world, or perhaps because the authorities were bribed. Tell me the name of the one man who was with your father at the time of his death."

Vera's face paled slightly, but she kept her eyes steadily fixed on her companion's face. She began to see now where the point of torture was coming from.

"I will not affect to misunderstand you," she said. "The man who was with my father at that time was Mr. Charles Evers, the son of a friend of my father's, and had more than once accompanied him on his excursions. Perhaps he was mislead, but a number of people who witnessed the scenes can guess why."

and true, so kind to everybody?" Oh! I know he was weak—I know that he had been sent away from England because he had fallen into bad company—but I know too, that he was a little fond of drink. There was only one point on which he was resolute—he never spoke much about his people; but I rather gathered that they were English."

"They were English?" Fenwick responded. "You'd be surprised if you knew how high a position." "I was saying that you could not endow a man with such a terrible crime. A man who is so fond of children, so sympathetic to weaker things, could not have taken such a fall as that."

"He was fond of my father, too, but that was not the strongest feature of the mystery. Do you suppose for a moment that the man who was engaged to endow a man with such a terrible crime, had violent hands on her father?"

"But he did it!" Fenwick cried impatiently. "I don't know why he did it, but he did it." "We did not go away and leave us to infer that he had perished at sea?"

"It was the kindest thing we could do, let's say," Fenwick said. "I know that you are a good girl, but you still have a lot to learn."

"I know that you are a good girl, but you still have a lot to learn."

THE ROOT AGREEMENT

MINISTERS SAY THAT THEY ARE NOT DISTURBED

Stated in Ministerial Circles That the Success of the Amendment Does Not Mean Anything—Canadian Pulp and Paper Will Not Be Free Until the Provinces Take Off the Export Restrictions.

Ottawa—News from Washington that the finance committee of the senate has reported the reciprocity bill with the Root amendment has not caused any great concern in Ottawa. It is not regarded as an amendment vitally affecting the measure. It places a restriction upon the reading of the original intent it moves ground for wider interpretation.

It is stated in ministerial circles that the original intention of the United States was not to admit free Canadian pulp and paper unless imposed by certain provinces were removed. The federal government of course, has authority to compel the removal of such regulations. However, a division of opinion soon manifested itself in Washington as to the effect of the clause and pulp and paper manufacturers, interpreted it as admitting free pulp and paper. The Root amendment was passed, thus this wider construction and liberal cause it to be read in a restrictive light, which it was viewed originally. It will be disappointing, however, to publishers on this side, and the view is held that a decision to eliminate it will be made in the Senate.

Mr. Fielding before going away was quoted as saying that the amendment gave him no cause for alarm. The alarm will be at Washington, where pro-reciprocity people won't be able to hold their heads high if the intent of that particular clause is removed.

In other words Canadian pulp and paper will not be free until the provinces see fit to take off the export restrictions.

Mr. Patterson, minister of customs, who helped Mr. Fielding, said the agreement was distinguished over the news from Washington. When informed of what had taken place he said that he did not anticipate that the members of the Root amendment would make any difference, and added by way of comment, "Well, things are moving."

150 DEAD IN EARTHQUAKE

One Town in State of Jalisco Is Wiped Out—Deadly of Tolima Falls

Mexico City—Crushing and tossing rocks from cones to cones and through the air, the earth trembled death to at least 150 persons, according to authentic counts. The area of the earliest direction is a rectangular, with its northern boundary less than 50 miles from the capital, and the south line cutting across the lower part of Guanajuato state.

The death toll grows with fatalities of 150, and it could easily be as compiled by the police in Mexico City is 63. Forty-nine corpses have been taken out of the ruins of these two towns. It will never be known how many more there were.

For instance, Tonala, in Jalisco state, was wiped out, to all outward appearances, but the score of deaths there cannot be accurately obtained.

Nowhere else in the land will the city of Colima, but a considerable amount of damage was done. The cathedral is so badly damaged that a slight shake might cause it to collapse, and to cover another church was topped on the roof.

Will Laurier Accept High Commission?

London—The South Wales News-London correspondent understands that Sir Wilfrid Laurier is consulting the home government regarding the future of the Canadian high commission.

The correspondent points out that it is hardly to be expected that Lord Stratford will much longer carry on his duties in an Indian circle, and it is suggested that Laurier himself accept the position which shall then again be associated with a seat in the House of Lords.

MILLIONS OF GOLDEN GRAIN
Lethbridge People Are Counting the Harvest Already—Expect Big Yield.

Lethbridge, Alta.—Between ten and twelve million bushels of grain is the estimated yield of the crops immediately tributary to Lethbridge.

The biggest increase will likely be about the Courts branch of the A. R. & L. R. when experts just having investigated the crops find bumper bushels harvested. This is twice as much as has ever been raised along the A. R. & L. R.

Five years ago the crop was not a bushel raised in this territory except a little on irrigated land around Stirling.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

At present, as they cannot reach the deaf person, there is no way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is only the permanent state. When the disease is removed, you have a normal ear. Deafness is the result, and unless the entire cause of deafness is removed, it will return to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed, however, when nothing is given to the ear, and when nothing is given to the ear, it will be destroyed again.

Deafness caused by catarrh can be cured by Dr. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Inc., 2007 State St., Chicago. Sold by Druggists. Take their Family Pills for constipation.
